

WELCOME TO CAMINO RETIREMENT APARTMENTS

At Camino, our long-tenured staff, philosophy, spirit, and location all work together to create a community that is welcoming and caring. We offer a great new home, whether you need assisted care, or are interested in independent living.

Camino has served the community since 1972, when it became Albuquerque's first retirement community. We have remained at the same convenient location just east of Juan Tabo, with great views of the East Mountains, the spectacular sunsets and brilliant city lights.

Camino offers a comfortable lifestyle at a reasonable price. There is no buy-in fee and our leases are month to month. Our pricing is all-inclusive. No end of month surprise up-charges for care. We invite you to compare!

INDEPENDENT LIVING

At Camino, we pride ourselves on a setting that lets each resident maintain his or her independence. Our community is large enough to have the professional amenities of larger options, while still offering a homey feel, and support 24 hours per day.

Our Independent Living community includes studio and one-bedroom apartments that allow for companion or solo living. All residents have the freedom to make the space their own and maintain their own privacy.

Unique to Camino, if you decide to transfer to Assisted Care Living, you can remain in your same apartment.

ASSISTED CARE LIVING

Assisted living is generally the first, and best, option for seniors who can't perform daily activities on their own anymore. An assisted living community provides quality, caring, trained staff to help with basic care, such as:

- Assistance with medication, including reminders and supervision
- Health monitoring, including daily health needs
- Help with personal hygiene, including bathing, dressing, and grooming

The real value is in working with a staff who understands where a resident needs help, and where they don't. This way, residents get the care they need while maintaining the independence they want. We create a care plan, tailored to each individual.

Our long-tenured, caring staff is a key ingredient to making residents feel Camino is their new home.
